

Course 4 – Workshops and Discussions Calendar 2005

The delivery of the following events has been planned for this year. This is based on the number of enrolments and to what enrolled students have already completed. Changes, only due to unforeseen circumstances, might occur during the year. If the demand for a certain event will arise, it will be taken into account. This calendar can be used for planning your studies during the year. The minimum time for completion of this course is one year.
